

Títols de les preguntes:

1. Is it beneficial to play chess against yourself?
2. A purely self-trained chess AI
3. What happens if a strong chess engine plays with itself many times?
4. How to setup a chess engine to play itself?
5. How to make a self study plan to become a good chess player to play rated tournaments?
6. Alpha Zero vs Lc0 - time for self-play
7. Should playing chess against yourself always end up in a draw?
8. Is it possible to have a double self-smothered stalemate?
9. What software can I use to self-assess my own Elo rating?
10. Could you estimate Napoleon's (or other historic persons) Elo on the base of his known games?
11. Step-by-step guide to prepare yourself
12. If you exploit Article 12.9 in FIDE's Laws of Chess, is it possible to benefit yourself by purposely receiving a penalty?
13. A new AI wins at go. Can a similar AI win at chess? Can it achieve pure self-training?
14. Why is taking notes that encourage oneself illegal in chess?
15. Python script to let stockfish selfplay 10 games from a given position
16. What motivated Kasparov's comments on the Anand-Gelfand match?
17. Why does Fishtesting test Stockfish against itself, not other engines?
18. Associating myself with my FIDE chess profile
19. Is testing an opening by having a computer play against itself viable?
20. How can I train myself in pawn endgames?
21. Train Leela Chess against myself
22. What is the best structured resource for self training?
23. Self-Solving Chess Problems
24. Is this selfmate solvable or fixable?
25. Anand - Gelfand 12th game in World Chess championship 2012
26. How can I train myself to become more observant of all my pieces?
27. How to get stockfish to play a selfmatch without clearing the hash table between games
28. The quickest selfmate in 1
29. Does Boris Gelfand share his surname with a chess piece?
30. Why did Gelfand resign against Anand in the shortest match in WCC?
31. How to notify check when a player leaves himself in check
32. In game 1 of the 2012 WCC between Anand and Gelfand, black ignored his passed pawn advantage. Why?
33. Why is it inappropriate to take a photo with the trophy according to Carlsen?
34. Testing an engine (UCI) against an older version of itself
35. When playing a computer opponent what situations should I create to give myself a better chance of winning?
36. Can Magnus Carlsen force draw (pun-intended) himself to victory?
37. Best way to use UCI engine to play against itself
38. What are the names of the seconds for Anand vs Gelfand WCC 2012?

39. Carlsen vs Gelfand World Championship Candidates (2013). Could Gelfand have held it with 44...Bxf1!
40. During the Revolutionary and Napoleonic Era, what was the rule for stalemate in France?
41. I have discovered a selfmate requiring 1,351 moves to enforce. How does this move-count stack up against the 'record holder'?
42. How large can a rating difference become before either player realizes it's not worth engaging in a game?
43. Is KQB vs KP generally sufficient to force a selfmate?
44. Do modern chess engines learn material values through self-play?
45. Selfmate problem
46. What explains self destructive behaviour?
47. Should a member of a national chess federation register himself separately for FIN?
48. Taking the King while (self) being in check in Blitz Chess
49. The quickest selfmate in 2
50. Any self learning computers playing chess? How good are they?
51. Duplex forced selfstalemate
52. Daily chess self-training plan?
53. Actual selfmate in OTB game?